I am currently working as a barista part time in Debenhams, however I am also completing my final year in my BA Hons degree in Fashion, Business and Promotion. After completing my BA degree, I shall be going on further to undertake a level 5 CIPD in Human Resources, so I can gain the correct knowledge and expertise in this industry as, I aim to gain a long-term career within Human Resources. By working for your company this experience would allow me to potentially grow and gain an insight into Human Resources.
