EMPLOYMENT

The Performance Plug
November '03

A supplement company that wanted to build on their social media content contacted me to produce still images of each of their products. This involved a planned location and a wide variety of shots to best capture every product in my own creative way. The company left feedback to thank me for the quality of work and communication with the owner.

Deflect Clothing
February '20

A new clothing brand in need of a full promotional video for website use contacted me to plan, direct, shoot and edit their homepage film. This project was in collaboration with a graphic designer and the deflect brand, managed and directed by me.

Form Magazine LookBook

'It has been a pleasure working with Theo Films. Not only did he provide us with a fast, high quality of service, but he also gave us a great amount of options to work with in terms of style of the photos, which we initially had very little knowledge of, not being photographers! He is friendly, hard-working and very very good at what he does, highly recommended and will definitely be using again!'
